No refunds are given in case of late cancellations or no-shows. The Suppliers interested in hotel reservations (not included in the fee) will find all necessary information in the website www.eurekamice.com The Supplier will have the possibility to reserve the room directly. The Secretariat is not responsible of reservations and dealings between Suppliers and Hotels.

12) EMI Eureka MICE International Ltd doesn't take any charge of any damage, cost, expense, loss of profit, punitive damage, damage to public image and any further damage suffered by the Supplier as a consequence of his/her registration and/or participation in the event. Moreover, without prejudice to the following paragraph, EMI Eureka MICE International Ltd is not responsible in any way in case that the cancellation, change, postponement or shortening of the event is due to acts of God and/or to any further reason which is beyond the control of the Organization like, including but not limited to, natural disasters, wars, revolts, riots, strikes, inevitable technical problems connected to transports, closing or congestion of airports, terrorist acts, natural or nuclear disasters, fires or adverse weather conditions, unforeseeable events.

13) In case of insufficient number of subscriptions to one event, up to 15 days prior to the event the Organization reserves the right to postpone or cancel it. In case of postponement, the organization will inform the Supplier about the new date scheduled. If the new scheduled date is not good for the Supplier, he can cancel the participation and get the paid sums back. Similarly, in case of cancellation of the event, the Organization will refund the total sum already paid by the Supplier through bank transfer, to the bank account used by the Supplier for the payments. The Organization is responsible only for the paid fee and not responsible for any further cost, expenses or damage occurred to the Supplier.

14) Each Supplier is responsible for his/her own safety and for caring about personal objects. A suitable insurance policy is recommended.

15) Unforeseeable events: EMI Eureka MICE International Ltd and its consultants/partners are not responsible for any damage due to cancellation, postponement or shortening, totally or in part, of the event owing to reasons not dependent on their control. At the same time EMI Eureka MICE International Ltd and its consultants/partners are not responsible for the loss, damage or delay due to acts of war, thefts, plundering, acts of terrorism, civil disorders, strikes, military activities or other circumstances in which it should be impossible to EMI Eureka MICE International Ltd to guarantee the performance of the event in the scheduled period and location.

16) EMI Eureka MICE International Ltd cannot be responsible for any dispute with the hosting Country, its sponsors or other bodies related to any aspect of the event capable to cause damage to the Supplier.

17) EMI Eureka MICE International Ltd reserves the right to change the scheduling of the event.

18) In relation to the technical, logistic and organizational need of the event and in order to guarantee to participant Suppliers the most convenient and incisive trading between Demand and Supplier, EMI Eureka MICE International Ltd reserves the right to make changes on the programme and on the procedures of appointments, honouring the schedule in any way.

19) The use of all data (personal data, all company references and all data concerning the event planning) and any other information related to attending Buyers received through the Organization (the "Reserved information") are allowed only to those Suppliers up to dated with payments and registration and are limited to aspects connected with promo-business encounters held during the Workshop, according to the following regulations. The Supplier undertakes not to publicize, communicate and spread the Reserved Information concerning the Buyers in any way (for example, orally and in writing or through the web) to any person or party. The Supplier undertakes to protect the Reserved Information privacy and to use any type of appropriate method to assure this kind of protection. For this reason, any different use is rigorously forbidden and shall be prosecuted, according to the international privacy laws. As far as EMI Eureka MICE International Ltd is concerned, in case of divulgation and/or use of Reserved Information concerning the Buyers in violation of the previous regulations, the Supplier must pay to the Organization the sum of € 20,000,00 (twenty thousand) as penalty, without prejudice to indemnity for any greater injury (that may be) suffered.

20) The Suppliers give EMI Eureka MICE International the consent for the publishing of their photos/videos taken during the event (including photos/videos of any companion) both in the event website and in the event directory.
